Immediate Release
September 29, 2023

On September 27, 2023 members of the Spotsylvania County Sheriff's Office Vice/Narcotics Unit partnered with Virginia State Police to conclude an ongoing narcotics investigation. Robert Gregory Lane, 38-year-old from Washington D.C. was arrested in the Thornburg area by Detectives with one kilo of suspected methylenedioxy-methamphetamine, commonly known as ecstasy or MDMA. Mr. Lane was charged with transporting more than 1oz of schedule I/II narcotics in the commonwealth, possession with the intent to distribute schedule I/II narcotics, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor since his ten-year-old child was with him at the time of arrest. He was incarcerated in the Rappahannock Regional Jail under no bond.

Sheriff Roger Harris would like to thank the Virginia State Police for their assistance in this investigation.
