TRUIST BANK ROBBERY

On February 08, 2025 at approximately 11:15AM, a bank employee at Truist Bank, 3600 Plank Road, called 911 to report a robbery. The employee stated a male came into the bank and demanded money. The employee complied with his demands and the male left with an undisclosed amount of money. The suspect did not display a weapon and there were no injuries reported. Witnesses at the bank described a vehicle the suspect left in as a copper/orange pickup truck.

Later in the evening, a tip came into the Sheriff's Office. Members of the Spotsylvania Street Crimes Unit (SCU) began investigating the tip, which ultimately led them to a hotel in the City of Fredericksburg. With the assistance of the Fredericksburg Police Department and members of SCU, 45-year-old, Lemar Gerald Dawson of Locust Grove was arrested and charged with robbery (18.2-58). Dawson has been remanded to the Rappahannock Regional Jail.
