April 13, 2020

On April 11, 2020 deputies and members of the Spotsylvania Sheriff's Office Street Crimes Unit responded to the PNC Bank, 5436 Jefferson Davis Hwy. The bank manager called the Sheriff's Office to report that a vehicle, occupied by two individuals was attempting to cash a fraudulent business check with a fake New Jersey driver's license. The bank manager was familiar with the individuals as they had gotten an alert from other branches where the individuals had attempted similar acts. Deputies were able to arrive and block the vehicle in the drive-thru. Noelio Amador-Quintero and Ayleen Gonzalez both of Miami, Florida were both detained. Inside the rental vehicle they were driving, investigators found numerous fake ID's, fraudulent/stolen checks from eight different states and stolen credit cards. Investigators also found a stolen rental car key out of Chicago, Il. This stolen vehicle was subsequently located at Richmond Airport.

Arrested:

Noelio R Amador Quintero (20), of Miami, FL, for Forgery, Uttering, Attempting to Obtain Money by False Pretenses, Conspiracy to Commit a Felony, Possession of Fake/Forged Documents, Possession of Forged Bank Note, False Identification to Law Enforcement, Possession of Schedule I/II Narcotics, Possession of Marijuana, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

Ayleen Lucia Gonzalez (20), of Miami, FL, was arrested for Attempting to Obtain Money by False Pretenses, Conspiracy to Commit a Felony, and Possession of Stolen Property. Both subjects were ordered held without bond.
