News Release: Fatal Motor Vehicle Crash

On May 12, 2022 at 1:00AM, deputies were dispatched to a motor vehicle crash involving a motorcycle in the area of Courthouse Road and Anna Point Lane. Units arrived within minutes to find a single motorcycle off the road that struck an embankment. The driver was ejected from the bike and found deceased at the scene. The investigation revealed that the motorcycle was traveling Westbound on Courthouse Road where it entered a curve at a high rate of speed striking the embankment. Speed and alcohol were a factor in the crash. The driver was identified as James William Segrue, 39 years of age, from Spotsylvania. The accident was investigated by the Sheriff's Office Accident Reconstruction Team.

Sheriff Roger Harris would like to thank the Louisa County Sheriff's Office for their assistance and expresses his deepest condolences to the victim and his family affected by this tragic incident.
